

POLARN O. PYRET

Animal Welfare Policy

Polarn O. Pyret believes that animals shall be treated well and be protected from suffering and disease. The purpose of this policy is to secure good practices and that no animal should be harmed in the making of our products. This policy refers to all materials used for Polarn O. Pyret own products, which originate from animals.

BASIC REQUIREMENTS

Materials used for PO.P products must not originate from vulnerable or endangered species as specified in the Convention of International Trade in Endangered Species (CITES). All parties involved, handling the animals and the materials, must follow national and international legislation.

THE FIVE FREEDOMS; recommendations on animal welfare set out by the World Organization by Animal Health (OIE), should be the guiding principles on all farms used in the production of fibre origin from animals used for PO.P products.

1. Freedom from hunger, malnutrition and thirst by ready access to fresh water and a diet to maintain full health and vigor
2. Freedom from heat stress or physical discomfort by providing an appropriate environment including shelter and a comfortable resting area
3. Freedom from pain, injury and disease by prevention or rapid diagnosis and treatment
4. Freedom to express normal patterns of behaviour by providing sufficient space, proper facilities, and company of the animal's own kind
5. Freedom from fear and distress by ensuring conditions and treatment which avoid mental suffering
